SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for your attention and hard work today. We did very well. Eight o'clock Monday morning. Eight o'clock Monday morning. I am not promising you which are long bills or short bills to start with but in order to get through somewhere in the afternoon we need to do that. So come prepared and we will take up overrides, motions and a bunch of bills that you have in front of you now. Thank you again for your sincere work today. Senator Hefner, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. Speaker, the agenda says 9:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It just changed.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay. Mine didn't.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, the reason for that was "Senator" Terry Evan's son became ill early this afternoon and we didn't get together as well as we should have. So please mark it to 8:00 a.m. and tell those who may not be here that we do start at 8:00. Thank you. Yes, we have eight hours of Final Reading so we really need to get started at 8:00. Sorry about that. Only one more day am I asking that of you. Senator Lundy.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President, I move that we adjourn until April 9 at 8:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. And anybody that wants a machine vote can stay and have it. Thank you.
